SCHLEIER, the photographer, is as good a gardener as he is a shadow catcher. He raised a tomato this season that weighed 14 pounds.

A NICE RAIN fell Friday, and while not sufficient, has been of great benefit to vegetation. The atmosphere has also been of a more agreeable temperature.

A COPPER COIN issued by the United States in 1794 of the value of half a cent is among Steve Myers' cabinet of curiosities.
These old timers were getting things down pretty fine when they made change to half a cent.

DR. CARPENTER says he did not say in his testimony that Jim Hatt exonerated the poor who shot him. He only said that he did not blame the sheriff and that he was foolish for running. He did blame the men who shot him.

SPEAKING—Mr. R. C. Warren, with his usual cleverness and party zeal, has accepted an invitation of the County Committee to make several speeches this week. He will speak at McKiner, Wednesday, 27th, and Tunnel City, Saturday, 30th, at 1 o'clock at each place. Let everybody turn out and hear him.

THE Philadelphia Clothing and Merchant Tailoring Agency of John H. Craig & Co., representing John Wannamaker and Jacob Reed's Sons, will place on sale this month 1,000 pieces French, English and American stuffs for men's fall and winter suits and trousers of the latest metropolitan designs. Each garment cut and made in Philadelphia and guaranteed to fit or no

SOMETIME ago the ladies of Hustonville gave a Pique Tea and invited all the boys.
Now the latter are to reciprocate by giving a "Geographical Party" at Mr. J. M.
Cook's, which will be at once unique, enjoyable and instructive. Messrs. J. B.
Cook, A. S. Price and June Hooker were here a day or two ago arranging for the invitations and other printing and said they were determined to make it one of the grandest events ever experienced in the West End. Next Monday night, 1st, is the time fixed.

holders. J. H. Baughman, Treasurer.

tion, who have not done so, must pay their initiation fee to Secretary Bright tomorrow. See his call elsewhere in this issue.

The negro, Bob Logan, who was shot by Mrs. Barrett, when he entered her room no doubt to ravish her, waived an examination yesterday and held in $500. He is getting well fast.

FAIR.—Visitors should remember that they can get comfortable quarters, good fare and excellent attention at Hale's Well.
A. L. Spoonamore.

THE Jennie Holman Company will give a splendid drama each night this week and Saturday at 2 o'clock will produce that fine temperance play, "Ten Nights in a Bar Room." Admission to the matinee 15 and 25 cents.

ROCK CASTLE SPRINGS is enjoying a prosperous season. The manager writes us that he has been turning off applicants for family rooms for more than a week, but still has room for a limited number of single gentlemen and ladies.

The Teachers' Institute closed at noon Friday, owing to the sudden illness of Prof.
W. C. Grinstead, the conductor. The usual resolutions were adopted, but as they were not furnished us till a late hour yesterday, we are forced to leave them out.

EVERY citizen of Lincoln who can should make it a point to attend the Fair to be held near here next Tuesday and Friday.
The officers intend that it shall be first-class in every particular and the liberal premium list that they offer induces lively competition.

The Bradley crowd drummed up a court house full of people at Lancaster yesterday and their chief harangued them ad nauseam.
It was reported that Theo. Curry was to announce himself a candidate for the Legislature on the prohibition ticket, but he had not done so up to 4 o'clock.

CHARLIE PEACOCK who lately went into the drug business in Bryantville, and Dr.
T. C. Armstrong had a few words yesterday when the doctor drew his pistol and fired at Peacock, fortunately missing him. Peacock went for a gun, but the doctor made him a if scarce and thus avoided a bullet.

DEMOCRATS and republicans alike owe it to themselves to see that Bobbitt is defeeted. Dr. Pettus can be relied on in any emergency. He will not speak for a bit and then vote against it as Bobbitt did on several occasions and his promise is as good as the best man's bond. The indications are that the people realize this and intend to show the demagogue away under this time.

A SYNDICATE to be known as the "Camberland Valley Land Company," publishes its incorporation notice elsewhere in this issue. The object is to buy and sell lands in Bell and Harlan counties, mine coal and manufacture lumber. It has options on thousands of acres of land lying on or near the L. & N. extension, which are rich in coal and timber and worth much more today than when the options were secured. It is understood that Judge Vincent Breling is to be president and J. S. Hocker treasurer of the company.

THE Rev. Joe Munday, wife and children arrived Saturday, and yesterday Mr.
Munday was talking with the lawyers about bringing suit against Hotel-keeper Moore at Williamsburg for forcing him to leave his establishment at the point of a shot-gun at midnight one night last week.
Munday says Moore became offended at something he said in his sermon and disliking him because he is a democrat, resorted to measures for which he will yet force him to seriously regret.

THE Jennie Holman Combination arrived on time and began a week's engagement at Walton's Opera House last night, opening in "Divorce." We went to press before the performance and cannot, therefore, give a personal opinion of its merits, but no troupe has ever come better recommended.
This is what the Sentinel said of it last week: "We rarely if ever saw a better show in Mr. Sterling's Jennie Holman is a charming young actress and is supported by a talented company. The orchestra makes much finer music than we ever heard at the Temple excepting the Men-delsohn Quintette Club. They have met with fair success and if Jennie will come back this winter the house will not contain standing room for the immense crowd that will greet her."

—Joseph Watson, brother of John W.
Watson, of this place, died at Crab Orchard Friday of consumption, aged 23.

RELIGIOUS.

—The Baptist Theological Seminary has rented the Standford Hotel, Louisville, for the accommodation of its students during the coming year.

—Elder Joseph Ballou will preach at the Junction City Christian church next Sunday at 11 o'clock and at Standford Christian church at night of same day.

—Rev. Joe Munday, a traveling evangelist, has been preaching during the week at the Baptist church. He has had large audiences and has created quite a sensation in local circles. —[Williamsburg Times.]

—Paul M. Donigan, a Turk, who has spent three years in the Bible College in Kentucky University, will deliver a lecture on the Manners and Customs of the Turks, in the Christian church Thursday night.
Mr. Donigan will show various Turkish costumes, and will sing some Turkish songs.
The lecture will be very interesting. Admission free.

—A week before he died C. L. Thomas L.
Jones wrote a list of those he wished to act as pall bearers at his funeral, and added:
"I die in the faith of the Protestant Episcopal Church, but entirely without prejudice I love all christian denominations. I have always had friends among the Catholics and an indebted to them for many kindnesses.
May God bless all mankind. Amen."

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.

—FOR SALE—25 nice stock hogs. A. T.
Nunnally.

—F. F. Sandigge sold to A. O. Cheneault, of Madison, his fine 4-year-old gelding for $300.

Volante got badly beaten at Saratoga, Saturday by Royal Arch, an unknown horse. Batters on the latter got 12 for 1.

—Wilmore, the fine stallion of John Wil-more, valued at $10,000, died at Harrodsburg last week.

—Mrs. Enack's farm just opposite Baque Bonita, in Woodford county, sold to E. P. Talbot at $90. There are 175 acres.

—A potato train, consisting of 12 cars loaded with 120 tons of new potatoes, reached Chicago the other day from Los Angeles, Cal.

—There is a tremendous boom in tobacco and what was recently a drug on the market now commands almost fabulous prices.
In Louisville $25 and $30 per hundred are common figures.

—LANCASTER COURT.—Very little business was done although the crowd was good, drawn thither to hear Bradley speak.
About 40 cattle on the market but none sold publicly. A few horses were sold at from $100 to $125 and mules at from $75 to $100.

—There were at Mr. Sterling court day 400 scrub cattle on the market. Two-year-old heifers sold from $12.50 to $15. Year lings $7 to $8. 400 mountain sheep sold from $2.25 to $3. 19 mules sold at an average of $10 which was the best sale made.

Kirkville Fair.

The 9th Annual Exhibition of the Kirk-ville Fair by far surpassed its predecessors, financially as well as otherwise. Large crowds attended both days and the display of stock was number one. An excellent dinner was spread each day and I am sure there was not a soul present who did not partake of the good things that the ladies of Kirkville and vicinity so thoroughly qualified in making and the gentlemen versed in serving, all of which was as free as the air we breathe. Immense tables were prepared with comfortable seats around them and it was indeed a delight to sit and see Madison county's finest attending to the wants of the diner and doubly so to the writer, who was a participant. The people actually put up themselves in getting up these dinners, which are both expensive and much trouble.

I stopped with the Band Boys, who had comfortable quarters at Mrs. John Finnell's and spent the night very pleasantly watching the merry young people, who has gathered to hear the music, conveying; enjoying the music that our band played at intervals from 8 to 11, and lastly a little dancing which Mrs. Finnell, after a little coaxing consented to permit. Kirkville is chuck full of pretty girls and one of the loveliest little towns of its size anywhere.
Mrs. Finnell has the thanks of the Band for kindness and attention shown them and the boys felt like giving her at least "three cheers," but decided that it would be better to thank her individually.

Mr. C. C. Carisum, President of the Association, is a very genial old gentleman and a most suitable man for the position, and with Secretary James B. Walker, and other officers, one is compelled to feel at ease. Mr. S. M. Prewitt, Ring Master, put us under obligations for kindnesses. He is a big-hearted old man and the Lincoln county crowd felt in love with him.

Lincoln was tolerably well represented, but not so well as Boyle. From the first named, Messrs. F. F. Sniffler, W. M.
Dodd and Joe F. Waters, all with good horse stock, took their share of the blue ties. Mr. W. M. Rie, from Boyle, had horses by the dozens it seemed and fine ones at that. He showed in nearly half the of the rings and was very rarely defeated.
One of the ladies from Standford drove in the fancy turnout ring and would have taken the blue tie but for the fact that there were two entries in the ring. A Lancaster lady drove horse No. 2, and came out wearing the "elick tie." In justice to the Stanford lady we will say that the turnout and not the lady was taken into consideration.

—The wife of Captain Otto, of the Kentucky Cavalry, who was a Miss Bateson, died at her father's in Millersburg.

—The Bigstaff tract of 111 acres, three miles from Newport, and overlooking the Ohio River, has been selected for the site of the new U. S. Barracks.

CHICKEN

Cholera Cure!

Thousands of dollars worth of chickens die every year from Cholera. It is more fatal to chickens than all other diseases combined. But the discovery of a remedy that positively cures it has been made, and to be convinced of its efficacy only requires a trial. A 50-cent bottle is enough for one hundred chickens. It is guaranteed. If, after using two-thirds of a bottle, the buyer is not thoroughly satisfied with it as a cure for Chicken Cholera, return it to the undersigned and your money will be refunded.
